

Riva F66 Wood Burning & Multi-fuel Freestanding Stoves

If you are looking for the greater heating performance of the Stovax Riva™ 66 inset fire but wish to combine this with the hearth-mounted appeal of a contemporary stove then the wood burning and multi-fuel F66 Freestanding stove provides a stylish, contemporary solution.

The F66 Freestanding can be placed on a Riva™ Bench, and for this model you can select either the 100cm, 120cm, 140cm or 180cm versions according to your requirements. Each will present a distinctive focal point whether freestanding in an open living space or positioned in a larger fireplace opening.

The Riva™ F66 Freestanding is available in two metallic paint finishes: Storm Metallic or Jet Black Metallic.
